

Code and title of specialty: 032 «History and archeology»

Title of specialization: «History»

Code and title of the field of knowledge: 03 «Humanities»

Qualification: Master of History and Archeology

Number of credits: 90 credits ECTS

Grade of higher education: second (master) corresponds to the seventh qualification level of National Qualifications Framework of Ukraine.

Requirement to the previous education grade: a person has the right to obtain master's degree provided he has bachelor degree. Provided that the previous level was obtained in another country, it is necessary to pass through the nostrification procedure.

Qualification requirements: document on higher education is issued to the person, who has successfully completed educational program and passed certification. Graduation certification is carried out by an assessment of competence formation degree. Attestation form- defense of master's thesis.

Program study results: In terms of professional research and educational activities, to apply general and specialized research methods for the analysis of historical objects, phenomena and processes.

In terms of professional research and training activities, to use knowledge to reproduce conceptual-categorical information about objects, subjects, properties, processes, methods and ways of activity.

In terms of production activity to plan and creatively design the education process as a whole, as well as the process of training a particular material, taking into account the specifics of the educational institution type; to plan educational and communicative activity of students both in class and in extra-curricular activities; to carry out in an integrated manner various kinds of training individualization.

In terms of production activity to outline the ways of forming intellectual and emotional spheres of the student, his cognitive and intellectual forces on historical material as an academic subject in a specific educational institution.

In terms of production activity, on the basis of the historical text analysis, to highlight its relevance for the present.

To be able to apply fundamentals of psychology of education and upbringing, organizational abilities, aesthetic expressiveness and pedagogical artistry, advanced experience in the process of education and upbringing.

In terms of professional teaching activities to prepare and conduct a lesson, plan lesson systems according to the purpose of history teaching, and develop tasks for independent work of students.

In terms of professional research and teaching activities:

- using the principles of professional communication at the scientific research level of modern Ukrainian professional language and a foreign language( necessary for understanding certain historical terms) to communicate with participants of professional, research and educational activities;

- working with sources of professional information, to analyze and adjust scientific texts in accordance with the norms of the scientific discourse of the modern Ukrainian professional language and foreign languages, necessary for understanding certain historical terms.

In terms of production activity, using professionally-oriented foreign sources, to master the basics of historical research.

To issue and maintain production and accounting documentation.

In terms of professional research and educational activity, for information search, data processing and educational material and research results presentation, to be able to use the Windows system, Microsoft Office technologies, additional packages, optical recognition systems, statistical text processing programs and new generation hardware.

In terms of professional teaching activity, to be able to apply the acquired knowledge for relevant historical material presentation as well as constantly update training content.

In terms of professional educational activity, to use current teaching methods in the process of history teaching in secondary schools, to present material and control the assessment level.

In terms of research and educational activities on the basis of informational professionally-oriented (verbal , electronic, etc.) resources, with the help of appropriate methods, to conduct:

- acquisition of new information about historical objects, phenomena and processes;
- search and analytical processing of new text (work with sources of scientific, educational and reference information), graphic, audio and video information , necessary for solving specific tasks of professional research and educational activities.
- freely and correctly use knowledge on history in various communicative situations (in professional communication, in the process of history teaching in high school, for a quality reproduction of the primary source in the target language).
- mobilize intellectual and spiritual opportunities for independent acquisition of new knowledge, progressive technologies and innovations.

To expand and systematize acquired knowledge gained through self-education and self-improvement.

Critically evaluate gained experience from the perspective of latest achievements of historical science and social activity.

In terms of professional educational activity:

-to conduct discussions of general scientific and professionally-oriented problems aimed at achieving understanding;

- to conduct verbal and written information exchange in the course of everyday and business contacts (business meetings, sessions, etc.) in order to obtain information necessary for solving specific teaching activity tasks;

-prepare and implement a report presentation on the results of professional activities.

Using knowledge on history and foreign languages and drawing upon practical skills, to be able to assess the primary source in terms of translation difficulties, to analyze the ways to overcome them, evaluate the final version of the translation.

Using knowledge of professionally-oriented human and social and economic sciences, specialized linguistic disciplines , secondary school teaching skills, skills of scientific and business communication( in Ukrainian and foreign languages) to be able to manage individual professional training activity.

To know functional features of historical process for choosing an effective way to present them in teaching history and their reproduction in the learning process.

In terms of production activity, based on the analysis of personal observation results, to analyze and evaluate linguistic and speech material of textbooks and teaching aids for the purpose of revealing its methodological significance, scientific reliability and foreseeing possible difficulties in material acquisition.

Employment competences: Master of specialty 032 «History and archeology» can hold positions according to the National classification of occupations of Ukraine DK 003:2010.

Further study perspective: Master of specialty 032 «History and archeology» can continue training on the third (educational and scientific) level of higher education.

Department graduating student with a degree: department of World History and History of Ukraine

Institute/faculty: faculty of law

Educational program supervisor: Ph.D in history, Associate Professor Sapitska O.M., sapitskava@vandex.ua, +380664838802